Office Action Summary	Application No. 09/987,760	Applicant(s) EBBS ET AL.
	Examiner Muriel Tinkler	Art Unit 3691

-- The MAILING DATE of this communication appears on the cover sheet with the correspondence address --

Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

This application has been reviewed. Claims 1-15 are pending. The rejection(s) are as follows.

Response to Amendment

1. Claims 1 and 7 have been amended. The amendments have been evaluated against the specification and accepted for review.

Response to Arguments

2. Applicant's arguments filed September 5, 2007, regarding claims 1 and 15, have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. The Applicant argues that Stranton does not disclose a software bus coupled to a plurality of services that operates independent from a presentation bus. The Examiner disagrees, Stranton discloses an enterprise LAN architecture in column 6 (lines 16-26). The Applicant further argues that Stranton does not allow for independent access. The Examiner disagrees, Stranton discloses an open network in column 1 (lines 32-40).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

3. The Applicant has amended claim 7 to overcome the 35 USC 112, 2nd paragraph rejection. Therefore, the 35 USC 112, 2nd paragraph rejection of claim 7 has been withdrawn.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

5. The changes made to 35 U.S.C. 102(e) by the American Inventors Protection Act of 1999 (AIPA) and the Intellectual Property and High Technology Technical Amendments Act of 2002 do not apply when the reference is a U.S. patent resulting directly or indirectly from an international application filed before November 29, 2000. Therefore, the prior art date of the reference is determined under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) prior to the amendment by the AIPA (pre-AIPA 35 U.S.C. 102(e)).

6. Claims 1-14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Stanton et al. (US 7,188,158 B1), hereafter referred to as Stanton.

7. Regarding Claim 1, Stanton discloses: a flexible, extensible, customizable platform for ecommerce applications in figure 1; a customizable presentation framework configured to received data from a server in the Abstract, column 1 (lines 15-32) and column 2 (lines 13-16); a plurality of extensible modules allowing independent access to services in the column 1 (lines 32-40), and column 2 (lines 33-48); and, a software bus communicatively couples to a plurality of services configured to provide access to each of the plurality of services wherein the software bus and the presentation framework operate independent from each other in Abstract and column 6 (lines 16-26).

8. Regarding Claim 2, Stanton discloses the use of a server using J2EE in figure 7 (element 135) and column 8 (lines 55-67).
9. Regarding Claim 3, Stanton disclose the use of a Java Bean application in column 6 (line 40) through column 7 (line 26) and column 8 (lines 12-22).
10. Regarding Claim 4, Stanton discloses the use of a manager object for interfacing with the customizable presentation framework in column 10 (lines 16-25 and lines 42-56).
11. Regarding Claim 5, Stanton discloses the use of an auction and pricing module in column 10 (line 63) through column 11 (line 13).
12. Regarding Claim 6, Stanton discloses that each module further include object that have data utilized by the module, referred to as 'DOM' in the column 2 (line 60) through column 3 (line 56); and column 8 (lines 22-31).
13. Regarding Claim 7, Stanton discloses the relations of consistency to the objects in column 9 (lines 30-44).
14. Regarding Claim 8, Stanton discloses the use of removable or replaceable objects that interface with the software bus in the column 6 (line 41) through column 7 (line 3) and column 7 (line 62) through column 8 (line 3).
15. Regarding Claim 9, Stanton discloses that the removable object includes the use of a stateless session bean, or HTTP, in the Abstract.
16. Regarding Claim 10, Stanton disclose a plurality of services that include: reporting and exception in Description (par 40); security in figure 7 (element 350), column 1 (lines 56-67), and column 9 (lines 30-44), column 10 (lines 26-41 and lines 57-

63) and column 13 (lines 32-35); and, access in figure 7 (element 345), column 4 (lines 18-31), column 6 (line 40) through column 7 (line 26) and column 10 (lines 16-25).

17. Regarding Claim 11, Stanton discloses that each extensible module may be packaged independently and are communicatively connected to the software bus in the Abstract, column 1 (lines 32-40) and column 2 (line 60) through column 3 (line 56).

18. Regarding Claim 12, Stanton discloses the use of a notification module in figure 1 (element 40) and column 11 (line 61) through column 12 (line 9).

19. Regarding Claim 13, Stanton discloses that each extensible module may depend on any other extensible module for communication with the software bus in column 6 (line 40) through column 7 (line 26).

20. Regarding Claim 14, Stanton discloses that the modules include: pricing and auction modules in column 10 (line 63) through column 11 (line 13); and, catalog functionality in column 7 (lines 49-61).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

21. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

22. The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.

23. Claim 15 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Stanton in view of Mikurak (US 6,606,744 B1), hereafter referred to as Mikurak.

24. Regarding Claim 15, Stanton discloses the act of connecting module functionality via the Internet and these functions include catalog, pricing and auction. While Stanton does discuss the use of e-commerce in Description (par 46), Stanton does not specifically disclose the term 'OMS module'. Mikurak teaches the use of an OMS module in figure 2 (element 212) and column 16 (lines 9-15). Therefore it would have been obvious to a person having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to modify Stanton to include OMS because, according to Mikurak, it allows the user to manage end-to-end supply chain information such as demand planning, order fulfillment, scheduling, inventory, etc. Also, according to Mikurak, the benefits of his invention along with the use of OMS, include: economies of scale are enabled, rationalization of procurement and inventory, rationalization of distribution and logistics facilities, and facilitation of the development of an industry-wide standard. See also the rejection(s) or claim 1 above.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP

§ 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Muriel Tinkler whose telephone number is (571)272-7976. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday through Friday from 7:30 AM until 4 PM.

If attempts to reach the examiner by telephone are unsuccessful, the examiner's supervisor, Alexander Kalinowski can be reached on (571)272-6771. The fax phone number for the organization where this application or proceeding is assigned is 571-273-8300.
